

The Immunisation Advisory Centre: 2020 Courses

The Immunisation Advisory Centre (IMAC) provides a range of learning opportunities for health professionals. This includes vaccinator training courses and the required two-yearly update. Other courses cover disease, vaccine and administration specific topics. Some courses are online only, whilst others include tutorial-based sessions.

All bookings, assessment and certificates are managed through our online learning platform. After creating a new user account or logging in as an existing user, you can browse the catalogue, register and pay for courses.

Visit lms.conectus.org.nz for more information.
